Nearly Three Dozen New Hampshire Tourism Entities Nominated in Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards

Concord – (April 28, 2020) – The cities of Manchester and Concord, Louie’s restaurant in Portsmouth, as well as 31 hotels and ski resorts across New Hampshire, were nominated for the 2020 Condé Nast Traveler Readers’ Choice Awards, an annual survey from one of the country’s leading consumer travel publications. The prestigious award is the longest running of its kind and celebrates the best in the travel industry.

“While visitors may not be able to travel to New Hampshire right now, this is a perfect opportunity to recognize a number of the extraordinary destinations and attractions that make the Granite State special,” said Lori Harnois, director, New Hampshire Division of Travel and Tourism Development. “We are proud to see New Hampshire represented so well in this year’s Condé Nast Traveler Readers’ Choice Awards and we congratulate all of the nominees. We hope the New Hampshire community will come together to support the incredible people that make up our tourism industry.”

To vote, participants can visit www.cntraveler.com/rca/vote, select the categories of “Cities,” “Hotels & Resorts,” “Ski Resorts” or “Restaurants, Bars & Beach Clubs” and enter “New Hampshire.” Each registered email address is eligible to vote once, and the deadline to do so is June 30, 2020. Winners will be announced on the Condé Nast Traveler website in mid-October and will appear in the November print issue.
